Photography and Filming Policy

To ensure the privacy, peace, safety and well-being of all guests staying at Rachamankha, photography or filming policy has been implemented and effective January 1, 2025:

1. Professional photography or filming is not permitted in the rooms or any area within Rachamankha hotel compound for walk-in guests.
2. In-house guests are permitted to conduct professional photography or filming, subject to an additional venue fee of 15,000 THB.
3. Requests for professional photography must be communicated to the hotel in advance or at the time of reservation. The hotel reserves the right to apply additional photography fee and conditions upon check-in or deny access to any photography crew arriving without notice or permission. All photography inquiries must comply with the hotel's procedures, regulations and require prior approval from the hotel management team.
4. Any attempt to capture photos or videos using professional equipment or branding will be classified as a professional photo shoot and the relevant fee will apply.
5. Changing outfits, applying makeup, styling hair with a makeup artist, or using professional equipment to alter appearance is not permitted anywhere in the hotel, including restrooms.
6. Professional teams must respect the privacy of other guests. No photos or videos may include or expose other guests or staff without their explicit consent, whether from the front or back view
7. Photo shoots featuring underwear products, nudity, sexually explicit content, political themes, religious themes or any other content that does not align with the hotel's images or Thailand government laws are strictly prohibited.
8. As Rachamankha is a hotel located within 5 kilometers of Chiang Mai Airport, drone photography or filming is prohibited under local regulations.
9. The hotel is not liable for any licensing matters related to photos and videos taken on its premises, including those featuring hotel artwork, models, music or other elements.
10. The use of nails, glue, relocated furniture, or any other fixation methods is strictly prohibited. Any damage caused to hotel property during professional photography or filming will result in financial liability for responsible parties.
